Your own professional village/town website

XL Homepage Village/Town

Your own website

Your guests are easily and quickly provided with information and the possibility of online booking

With the Tiscover XL website, the holiday seeker can rapidly access detailed data on your holiday destination on the internet, book a holiday online with only a few clicks, post requests or directly contact you. Regarding layout, we focus on a clearly arranged presentation comprising any information relevant to the guest: the XL website features a wealth of information combined with moving picture messages and it also conveys atmospheres. Moreover, your new website provides the guest easy access to his/her goal, be it a request or an online booking in an accommodation business of your village/town.

Easily kept up-to-date – we save your valuable time!

With the Tiscover Extranet, data maintenance and update on your new website is easy to handle. The best thing about it is that you update both your own website and your presentation on the Tiscover platform by maintaining the data just once.

Increased marketing power

Tiscover has established cooperations with a great number of renowned partner platforms. Our clients benefit from these cooperations because the contents of your XL website can be automatically retrieved and bookings made on these platforms!

Your strong partner – the Tiscover Webfactory

The Tiscover Webfactory offers you individual XL websites which are designed according to your Corporate Design and your wishes and requirements. The vast experience of our Tiscover Webfactory team guarantees a fast, convenient and customized creation of your new website. ## XL Homepage Village/Town

XL Homepage Town

Guaranteed uniqueness!

With the XL Homepage Town we offer you individual implementation of your design ideas in a summer and a winter layout. Regarding design, we rigorously follow your design ideas, implement your wishes and requirements one to one and focus on Corporate Design. Thus, you are provided with a completely individual XL website with guaranteed singularity which is designed for your village/town exclusively. Moreover, the XL Homepage Town package distinguishes itself through extra features, such as an animated advertising banner, the provision of a brochure or a similar document for download as well as through the increased use of picture messages and individual menu items. In addition, we integrate a navigation system in your XL website in order to make geographic orientation easier for the user.

Your advantage – the all-inclusive package

In addition to the basic design, you are provided an extensive presentation of your information with a myriad of picture messages. We offer you the all-inclusive package incl. screen design of your XL website and a great number of individual elements for an extraordinarily attractive price – good value for money!
